

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Etta Bavilla,

Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,

Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13897

Order

Notice and Motion to Stay Briefing
Deadlines

Date of Order: February 17, 2022

Trial Court Case No. 3DI-19-00119CI

Following a representation hearing, the superior court appointed the Office of Public Advocacy to represent the Appellant, Etta Bavilla, in this appeal. The Office of Public Advocacy subsequently moved in the superior court to vacate that appointment, and then filed a motion asking this Court to stay the briefing schedule in this appeal until the superior court resolves the pending motion to vacate. The State does not oppose the motion to stay.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED:

The motion to stay the briefing schedule in this appeal until the superior court resolves the Office of Public Advocacy's motion to vacate is GRANTED in part. The briefing schedule is stayed until the superior court resolves the Office of Public Advocacy's pending motion, or until March 31, 2022, whichever occurs first. If the superior court resolves that motion prior to March 31, 2022, the Office of Public Advocacy shall promptly notify this Court of the superior court's decision. If the superior court does not resolve the motion prior to March 31, 2022, the Office of Public Advocacy is directed to provide this Court a report on the status of the pending motion no later than March 31, 2022.
